

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BOOK-KEEPERS

IAB

Qualifications for business

Take your career to the next level with trial membership

By registering for an IAB qualification you instantly received a year's free student membership and have been able to access a range of support including past examination papers and discounts by applying for an NUS Extra Card, to name just a few! We hope you've been enjoying all these benefits.

Your career needs our support so why not make the best use of your IAB qualification by applying to join the IAB as a professional member? The IAB is the leading professional and awarding body for bookkeepers and has over 10,000 members across 60 countries. By joining as a professional member you will be joining a family of thousands of other professional bookkeepers around the world and will receive the recognition you deserve!

Regulated by Ofqual, the IAB is both a government-approved and statutory supervisory body under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007. Setting world-class standards, it provides members worldwide with access to a wealth of benefits to assist you by opening the door to exclusive opportunities to grow your career – and build your future.

By opting into trial membership you can begin to experience the benefits and support on offer to professional members.

Welcome to trial membership

As a trial member you can access:

- the IAB Members Restricted Area of the website
- all professional member benefits including the IAB Privileges Scheme
- the IAB e-newsletters featuring technical updates and articles to support you in your career.

Your trial membership will last for three months and during this period you will be invited to upgrade to professional membership. Once you have applied and your application for professional membership has been approved you will be able to continue to access the excellent range of support on offer plus you will:

- Be able to use the relevant IAB designatory letters after your name, elevating your status to the most professional level in the industry
- Receive a membership card and certificate to show to clients or employers that you are a member of a professional body and follow the high standards set
- Ability to apply for a Certificate of Supervision/Compliance for supervision under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007. Please note if you are a sole trader or in practice offering bookkeeping services you will be required to register as supervision is mandatory.

Welcome to your trial membership!

For further information please contact the IAB Membership Department:

membership@iab.org.uk or +44 (0)1732 897750.